

Start planning for the future.

In turbulent times, choosing the right partner can be the difference between reactionary decisions and measured progress. Alcatel-Lucent's commitment to open architecture ensures business continuity while minimizing the financial impact of change.

Get to Know Us

- We are defying market trends and continuing to grow our business.
- SSP has been consulting, designing and building networks across Canada and the United States since 1986.
- SSP is a leading provider of Alcatel-Lucent VoIP solutions with offices in British Columbia, Alberta, Ontario and Quebec
- Alcatel-Lucent products are trusted by over 250,000 customers in over 130 countries.

1 We Help You Transition With 'IP for Free'*

Take advantage of our migration offer which includes Internet Protocol (IP) user licenses and Power over Ethernet for Free. With the purchase of an Alcatel-Lucent OmniPCX Enterprise communication system, you will receive (i) one free IP user license for each IP end-point, and (ii) free Alcatel-Lucent OmniSwitch 6200 LAN switches with one Power over Ethernet port for each IP Touch 4028, 4038 and 4068 phone purchased.

* Offer requires buy-back or certificate of destruction of existing replaced equipment. Offer applies to new system purchases installed prior to December 31, 2009.

2 We Help You Grow Your Business With Unified Communications

Benefit from significant discounts with our unique user-profile-based packages. Start enhancing your productivity now with our market-leading Unified Communications and other advanced applications.

3 We Help Your Bottom Line by Buying Back Your Existing Equipment

Take advantage of our buy-back program and get the fair market value for your current voice and data equipment as a credit towards the purchase of your new Alcatel-Lucent system hardware and software.